

Three 6X Champs Crowned at the Expo Center!

Three wrestlers earned their sixth gold medal at the Huskerland State Meet on Saturday, March 31st, at the Expo Center in Kearney Nebraska. Isaac Deloa of Millard South WC, David Gross of St. Paul WC, and Korbin Meink of Plattsmouth WC all took home a 6th Huskerland State Gold Medal and were awarded 6X Plaques from Huskerland. Isaac and Korbin both won their 4th Champion of Champions Medal. David lost to Tristen Simons of Battle Creek in his COC match.

Two wrestlers are still on track for number six in 2013. They are Mario Venzor of Schuyler WC and Jeffrey Heinz of Westside WC. Jeffrey will also be going for his 5th COC gold medal. His only lost at Huskerland was in the COC match in 3rd grade. Zach Baldwin of Columbus was also going for #5 but lost to Reid Pfeifer of Plattsmouth WC in his bracket finals.

Five wrestlers won a fifth gold medal in their final Huskerland State Meet. They are Zemua Baptista of Lil Dawgs WC, Jeremiah Dickinson of Central City WC, Zack Kerner of Arapahoe WC, Andrew Null of Plattsmouth WC, and Carter Woehlke of Columbus WC. Zemua, Zach, and Carter went on to win Champion of Champions gold medals.

Ryley Spatz of East Butler won his 4th straight gold medal and is on track to be a 6X champ in 2014. Three other wrestlers, Justin Hennessy of Lincoln Warriors WC, Zachary Prall of Plattsmouth WC, and Ben Stille of Ashland-Greenwood WC brought home their 4th gold medals in their final Huskerland State Meet. All four of these wrestlers were given their Mat Master shirts.
